MRS. PHILIP SNOWDEN, the noted English suffragist, will make the opening address at the suffrage convention in Lexington the night of Monday, Nov. 8. When Mrs. Snowden spoke in Lexington two years ago many people who could not get seats stood throughout the address. Many others were turned away because they could not even find standing room in the hall.

Mrs. Snowden is the wife of the Honorable Philip Snowden, a member of the House of Commons, and at present one of the committee appointed by Hon. Lloyd George to control the sale of liquor in the munitions area. Mrs. Snowden, though a young woman, has been speaking in public since her husband was returned to Parliament in 1905. In the last eight years she has averaged two hundred public addresses a year, delivered in England, in this country and in Australia. Mrs. Snowden is now living a month's campaign speaking in New York State. She is the author of a book on "The Feminist Movement."

MRS. R. A. McDOWELL, of Louisville, Recording Secretary of the K. E. R. A., is the wife of a prominent Louisville attorney, who is President of the Kentucky Men's League for Woman Suffrage. Mrs. McDowell, as Chairman of the suffrage tent at the recent State Fair, secured over 1,500 signatures of men and women as believers in suffrage.

MRS. J. B. JUDAH, of Louisville, Treasurer of the K. E. R. A., has brought not only a brilliant mind, earnest conviction and fine enthusiasm to the suffrage cause, but a most valuable experience as a club worker and as an officer of the local and the national Jewish Council of Women.

NATIONAL SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION TO MEET IN WASHINGTON, D. C. The National American Woman Suffrage Association will hold its annual meeting in Washington, D. C., at the New Willard Hotel, December 14-15. Immediately after the opening of Congress, delegates from Kentucky to the national convention will be chosen at the state meeting of the K. E. R. A. at Lexington.

NOTICE TO THE VOTERS

Sept. 30, 1915

To The Voters of Madison County
I am addressing you in the interest of my candidacy to represent the county in the next Legislature. I wish to say I have always had a desire to represent the county in that body, because of my varied experience in matters pertaining to what I deem to be for the best interests of the State.

In the first place, I was born and reared upon the farm and am still a farmer, believe I know what is the best interests of the farmers, and at the same time, believe there should be nothing passed through and enacted into legislation that would prove detrimental to other callings or legitimate business of any kind; and having been engaged as a merchant and having a general knowledge of business and the needs of the general public, I believe I can represent all classes fairly and to the best interests of the State.

For many years I have taught in the public schools of the county, as to my qualifications and ability to represent the county. I refer to those who know me best: I have never in my life tasted intoxicating liquors, and believe in the strict enforcement of the County Unlawful Law, and favor the enforcement of all laws.

I favor a better taxing system, and lower taxes; longer school terms and few changes in school books; last but not least, I believe in good roads economically constructed.

While I have always affiliated with the Republican party, I am not a partisan and do not entertain bitter feelings for the Democracy, and will greatly appreciate any Democratic aid that may be given me.

I solicit your votes irrespective of party, and if elected, shall endeavor to vote honestly in the discharge of the duties that come upon me, doing in every instance what I deem to be the best interests of all.

Yours Truly,
G. B. Moores.

Summing Up the Evidence

Many Richmond People Have Been Killed As Witnesses.

Week after week has been published the testimony of Richmond people—kidney sufferers—backache victims—who have endured many forms of kidney, bladder or urinary disorders. These witnesses have given Doan's Kidney Pills. All have given their enthusiastic approval. It's the same everywhere. 30,000 American men and women are publicly recommending Doan's—always in the home papers. Isn't it a wonderful, convincing mass of proof? If you are a sufferer your verdict must be "Try Doan's first."

"Mrs. Nelson Ross, 410 Laurel St., says: 'My kidneys were irregular in action and I had pains through my back. At times I was nervous and dizzy. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Middleton's Drug Store, soon made me feel better in every way.'"

Price 25c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Ross had. Foster-Milburn Co. Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—adv.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson IV.—Fourth Quarter, For Oct. 24, 1915.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, 11 Kings vi, 8-17. Memory Verses, 16, 17—Golden Text, Ps. xxiv, 7—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

In last week's lesson the conduct of Elisha, the man of God, was truly grand as he made it manifest that he did indeed stand before the living God, not cringing to nor fawning upon any human greatness nor seeking anything from any one but the Lord alone. His covetous lying servant could not understand it and brought upon himself the leprosy of Naaman. "Take heed, and beware of covetousness," for "covetousness is idolatry" (Luke xii, 15; Col. iii, 5).

The opening verses of our lesson chapter tell of Elisha going with the sons of the prophets to Jordan to obtain material to enlarge their dwelling, which had become too strait for them.

We are not told what school this was, but probably the one at Jericho, for that was nearest to Jordan, and perhaps the same young men who searched in vain three days for Elisha. It looks as if there was an increase in the number of students, and if so it may have been because of the translation of Elisha. This I do know that the truths concerning the coming of Christ and associated events always lead to increase of interest in Bible study.

The lost ax recovered by a bit of tree cast into the water, which made the iron swim, makes me think of the tree which made the waters of Marah to lose their bitterness (Ex. xv, 25) and of Him who is the tree of life, who alone can recover the lost or sweeten bitter waters.

In our present lesson the king of Israel was delivered several times from the king of Syria because of the timely warnings of Elisha, so that the king of Syria believed that he had a traitor in his army who was a friend of the king of Israel. He called his servants to inquire which of them it was who revealed his plans to the king of Israel. It was thus that he learned that there was no traitor among his people, but that there was a prophet in Israel who could tell his king everything, even the words he spoke in secret (verses 1-12).

Then the king of Syria determined to capture Elisha and sent horses and chariots, a great host, who came by night and compassed the city of Dothan, where Elisha was (verses 13, 14). In the morning Elisha's servant, seeing this great host, was filled with fear, and said, "Alas, my master, how shall we do?" Elisha calmly replied, "Fear not, for they that be with us are more than they that be with them" (verses 15, 16). Elisha could make the words of David his own, "Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear" (Ps. xxvii, 3). He could say with Paul, "If God be for us who can be against us?" (Rom. viii, 31). Oh, the rest of such confidence in God, the victory of such a consciousness of the unseen! Moses endured as seeing Him who is invisible. David also realized in a remarkable degree the presence of the Lord.

Our Lord Jesus when he was here was ministered to by the angels and said that He could have legions of them for the asking. As Elisha endeavored to quiet his servant he said, "Lord, I pray thee, open my eyes that he may see." And the young man saw the mountain full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha (verse 17). Oh, for such a sight of unseen realities! It all comes from the word, "Blessed are they that have not seen, yet have believed." "We walk by faith, not by sight" (John xxi, 20; II Cor. v, 7). I do believe that the angels (not our friends who have died) are ministering to the redeemed on the earth, the heirs of salvation (Heb. i, 14). I often say to my people and to the classes that I know that I have two congregations, those whom I see and the invisible angels who desire to look into the things of which we speak (I Pet. i, 12).

As the Syrians came to take Elisha he said, "Lord, I pray Thee smite this people with blindness," and He did so. Then Elisha said to them, "Follow me and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek" (verses 18, 19). For it was really the king of Israel whom they were seeking. They only wanted the prophet because he was hindering them from getting the king of Israel.

Having brought them to the man they wanted, he said, "Lord, open the eyes of these men that they may see," and, their eyes being opened, they found themselves in Samaria in the presence of the king of Israel. At the suggestion of Elisha he prepared great provision for them, and when they had eaten and drunk he sent them away to their master. So the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel (verses 20-23).

It was certainly hopeless to think of accomplishing anything against a power that could so control them, and such kindness from one who could so easily have slain them all was too much for them. Such treatment from a people so remarkably protected as a prophet of the Lord completely subdued them. It looks like a great moral conquest.

In chapter vii we see more of the power of God in causing the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots and horses and to flee for their lives, leaving everything behind them.

"The wicked seek when no man pursueth." Nothing too hard for the Lord.

Close Call For Winchester.

Winchester had a close call last Thursday night when a C. & O. freight train crashed into an L. & N. cut of cars which was being switched. Two cars filled with dynamite were reduced to splinters and the explosive scattered several yards, but for some unaccountable reason did not explode. There was enough dynamite in those two cars, had it been exploded, to blow Winchester off the face of the earth.
